SCHAUMBURG, IL (June 15, 2023) – The Village of Schaumburg is pleased to announce BoDeans and Michael Glabicki of Rusted Root with Dirk Miller as the main stage acts for Sunday, Sept. 3 at its popular three-day festival, Septemberfest. The performance will be followed with a 15-minute fireworks display. Main stage acts for Saturday, Sept. 2 and Monday, Sept. 4 will be announced in the coming weeks.

BoDeans, founded and led by original front man, songwriter, multi-instrumentalist, and producer Kurt Neumann, will headline the main stage at 8:30 p.m. on Sunday, Sept. 3. BoDeans' music catalog consists of energetic hits such as "Good Things" and "Closer to Free" while still reflecting the soul and spirit of the modern American spirit in their newest album, 4 The Last Time. The band is included in a permanent installation at the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame Museum in Cleveland, Ohio and has performed with other well-known bands and artists such as Bob Dylan, Tom Petty, David Bowie and U2.

Michael Glabicki of Rusted Root with Dirk Miller will open for BoDeans at 7 p.m. Stripping down to the bare essentials, the duo takes old Rusted Root favorites along with new material to perform re-envisioned versions in an up close and intimate setting. The duos improvisational performance and musical exploration will create a truly unique experience.

Woogie will kick off the evening of music at 5 p.m. playing alternative rock party hits from the 90's to today, including songs from bands such as Blink-182, Weezer, Pearl Jam and more.
